17 COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through Leonardo M. Rapadas, 18 United States Attorney for the Districts of Guam and the NMI, and Karon V. Johnson, Assistant
19 United States Attorney for the District of Guam, to respectfully move this Honorable Court for a 20 Final Order of Forfeiture in the above-captioned case, and in support thereof represents to the 21 Court the following facts:

22 1. That on September 2, 2003, a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture was filed with this 23 Court.

24 2. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), third parties asserting a legal interest in the above-25 described forfeited properties are entitled to a judicial determination of the validity of the legal 26 claims or interests they assert.

1 3. That the last day for any claimant to file a claim was October 27, 2003.

2 4. The United States published a Legal Notice, in compliance of notification of the 3 Court's Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, in the Pacific Daily News, a newspaper of general
4 circulation on September 13, 2003, September 20 , 2003 and September 27, 2003. Said
5 published Legal Notice advised all third parties of their right to petition the Court within thirty 6 (30) days of the publication date for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of their alleged legal 7 interest in the forfeited property.

8 5. No other third party has made a claim to or declared any interest in the above-9 described forfeited property.

10 WHEREFORE, the United States moves this Court for a Final Order of Forfeiture
11 declaring the defendant $7,084.00 in United States Currency forfeited as to all parties and vesting
12 full right, title and interest in the defendant $7,084.00 United States Currency in the United 13 States and directing the United States Marshal to dispose of the defendant real property according 14 to law.

15 Respectfully submitted this 28th day of October, 2003.
